

A surreal landscape with a starry sky and a person holding a glowing orb. The scene is dominated by vibrant, wavy bands of purple, blue, and pink that create a sense of depth and movement. The sky is filled with numerous small, bright stars, and the ground below is a dark, reflective surface that mirrors the colors and light of the sky. In the lower right, a small, dark silhouette of a person stands on the ground, holding a glowing, golden orb that illuminates the surrounding area. The overall atmosphere is dreamlike and ethereal.
